DECLARATION OF CANDYCE HOGLAN

1. In my early years growing up in our family home in Biscayne Park, (Miami) Florida, we did reside in the same household and I played the role of an older sister to Mark Bingham. In a way, we grew up together. In those times, there was harmony in our family and we had a strong home base.
2. I was 10 years old when Alice brought Mark (as a baby) home. Being the youngest among my siblings, it seemed natural to dote on Mark (then called "Bruiser") as if he were my little brother. He was a cheerful and delightful little boy and our family loved him so much.
